PRETORIA, Transvani Republic, May 17.—The arrest at Johannesburg early Tuesslay morning of seven alleged former British officers, named Nicholia, Patterson, Tremlett, Bilis, Freis, Hooper and Mitchell, on the charge of high treason, has caused intense excitement here. The arrests were effected by a detective who joined the morement, which, it is asserted, was for the purpose of enrolling men in order to cause an outbreak of rebellion.

Inerdminating documents were found on the prisoners, and it is expected that further arrests will be made.

LONDON, May 17.—The foregoing dispatch probably explains the telegram received by The Argus of Capetown Tuesday, from Pretoria, saying the Transvaal secretary of state confirmed arrests had been made and that it was rumo ed that the prisoners were Brit-ish officers.

The advices from Johannesburg are ish officers.

The advices from Johannesburg are also probably connected with a mysterious dispatch received at Johannesburg from Pretoria on May 12, saying a special train fully equipped with Boer artillerymen, guns and searchlight apparatus, was being held in readiness at the capital of the Transvaal. The statement was then declared to be without significance, but Tuesday's news throws a more serious light on the movement, and it is certain the serious of the areas of the areas becomes generally known.

The afternoon papers Tuesday printed special dispatches from Sapetown saying seven men have been arrested at Johannesburg and have been taken to Pretoria. The government of Cape Colony, it further appears, is considering the matter secretly.

The news has caused great excitation that the say that warrants were issued Monday evening by the state attorney and were executed at midnight. The dispatch adde that a piot or rebellion is alleged to have been maturing for four months and that the accused, who are said to have been engaged by the South African league, that already claisted 2,000 men.

CAPLTOWN, May 17.—According to advices from Fretoria the charge against the prisoners is that, while staying in the Rand privately, they were resily engaged in enlisting men for the purpose of rebellion when they were ready to give the signal. The many control of the late Cuban military assembly and other discontented persons belonging to the new revolutionary club styled the Veteran's association met at Cerro and indulged in a prolonged debate on the question of the Cuban troops surrendering their arms. One group was in favor of entrusting the arms to the brigade chiefs or Cuban municipalities. Another group was opposed altogether to surrendering the arms style if might be necessary to "use them against Americating the arms and the surrendering the arms as trained by Sanguily. Andrade, Vidal and Juan Gomez. Telegrams from all the provinces were read, opposing giving up the arms. The so-called weakness of Geo. Maximo Gomez was contrasted with Aguinaldo's "patriotic courage." No decision was resched. During the meeting Col. Miyores proposed to send the following telegram to Santiago:

"Gen. Andrade declined to agree to the suggestion, saying it would not be advisable to make such a display of feeling. Instead of the dispatch proposed by Myores the following was sent.

"Reunited. Decided to agree to mus-
